Foreword

This, the 1965 yearbook, is the record of one year of hard work mixed with the play that went into the making of the '64-'65 school year. In it, we hope that we have captured in pictures, the many memorable moments of joy, tension, excitement, and fun of the past year.

So with this thought, we, the Lumberjack staff, present to you, the students of D.H.S., THE 1965 LUMBERJACK.

The crowning of a new queen, the thrills of a parade, the excitement of the BIG GAME -- all went to make up the HOME-COMING of 1964.

Homecoming '64 Style

Miss Landers was crowned amid the gaiety of the game; the queen candidates were all aglow; the total excitement was all part of a day long to be remembered.

Cheerleaders

Their vim and vigor urge Diboll's team to victory -

Their lusty yells fill every silence -

They are the D. H. S. Lumberjack cheerleaders - the essence of school spirit. They have worked so that their enthusiasm might direct our cheers with precision and fervor.

During the early morning hours, you can catch a glimpse of the never-tiring cheerleaders at work on decorating the halls or some device to create a spark of enthusiasm in the hearts of their fellow classmates.

The cheerleaders constitute the backing of school spirit.

How to avoid teen-age telephone traffic jams

LUFKIN TELEPHONE

Look, "Teenie"! We know the telephone is the life line of your social life but when you tie up the family phone, your friends can't call you. So be a good party line neighbor. Space your calls, keep them brief, and hang up the receiver carefully.

One of the sweetest, cutest, & craziest girls a person could know. One of these old days you'll never regret the good times you've had here at D. H. S. May God bless and keep, damn somebody needs him too, I ain't just a kidding. May all your dreams come true one of these ol' days. May you & Sammy cut out and everybody else too. One of your friends forever.
